

ABSTRACT

The RF-Controlled White board eraser consists of a long ranged remote control that triggers the eraser, positioned vertically, to move from left to right and vice versa. It comprises of an eraser frame that is being carried by the motor. This research has simple design that helps in saving time and energy in erasing the white board.

