Sr. M. Serafica Tolentino, OP for her valuable assistance, excellent insights, encouragement and prayers during the writing of this entire research;

Fr. Luke Moortgat, CICM, for giving me special discount on the statistical treatment and all the STAR staff, especially Christy Manlapig, for their help in data computerization;

The administrators and the teaching and non-teaching personnel in nine Dominican-owned schools in the Visayas for their whole hearted cooperation by accomplishing the questionnaires;

My classmates and friends, the MSEM batch 1989-1990 for their understanding, support and helping hand during my times of darkness and difficulty;

Ver Laguardia for his assistance during the tabulation of the data;

And to my family, who inspired me to continue and finish this research work.

To all of you, my profound gratitude and prayerful thanks for the accomplishment of this thesis.
