

ABSTRACT

Name of Institution: De La Salle University Dasmariñas

Address: Bagong Bayan DBP Cavite

Title: A comparative study on the criminal justice system of the Philippines and Saudi Arabia and its significance to Overseas Filipino Workers (OFW's)

Authors: Melvin John Nograles
Lindsey A. Rojas
Chandra D. Rustria

Funding Source: Parents

Date Started: October 1997

Date Completed: September 1998

OBJECTIVE OF THE STUDY:

A. General:

This study aimed to analyze and compare the criminal justice system of the Philippines and Saudi Arabia and its significance to OFW's.

B. Specific:

To compare the due process of law, the court trial system and the corresponding sanctions imposed to criminal cases of both country; Philippines and Saudi Arabia.

SCOPE AND COVERAGE:

This study will focus mainly on the criminal justice system of the Philippines and Saudi Arabia particularly the due process of Law, the Court Trial System and the corresponding sanctions imposed to certain criminal cases.